

CHAPTER 166.

[Published March 17, 1869.]

AN ACT to repeal chapter 132 of the general laws of 1866, entitled “an act to vest the title of unredeemed lands in counties.”

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 132 of the general laws of 1866, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. Real property upon which the county holds any certificate of tax sale shall continue liable to taxation and to sale for unpaid taxes, and the county shall be the exclusive purchaser at the sale, but where a tax deed shall be issued to the county and it shall hold tax certificates of sale unredeemed on the same property for two successive years subsequent to the issuing of such deed, such property shall thereafter be exempt from taxation until the same is sold by the county. The clerk of the board of supervisors shall annually before the first day of June, furnish to the assessors of each town, a list of the lands in such town exempt under this section. Section 1 amended.

SECTION 2. Section 3 of same act is hereby amended by striking out all after the word, “guardianship,” in the fourth line. Section 3 amended.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1869.
